DINING SERVICES

TAKOREAN OFFICIAL GRAND OPENING!

TaKorean's official grand opening was held on January 29 inside Campus Center Marketplace!

Attendees, including TaKorean's CEO Mike Lenard, enjoyed a celebratory lunch at the newest CPP Dining unit after an official ribbon cutting.

Blue and yellow decorations adorned the space, and a photobooth was available for guests, and customers, to commemorate the special day!

Starting out as a taco truck in Washington D.C. over a decade ago, TaKorean found much success on the East Coast, opening multiple locations in the D.C. area. Now, the fusion concept has brought its delicious and healthy offerings to the West Coast for the first time inside CPP's Campus Center Marketplace.

The menu, featuring Korean staples like bulgogi, kimchi slaw, and spicy cucumbers, satisfies the needs of CPP's diverse community with its variety of protein, veggie and side options that can be built into the perfect curated bowl, taco or salad for students and staff alike.

CENTERPOINTE LUNCHEONS: LUNAR NEW YEAR AND A TASTE OF BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Centerpointe recently hosted two special cultural luncheons for Lunar Year New and Black History Month!

The Lunar New Year luncheon, held on January 29, featured favorite dishes from Vietnam, China, Korea and Taiwan. The event was made in collaboration with CPP's Asian and Pacific Islander Student Center, who attended the luncheon and brought a wishing tree for students to write and wish for good fortune into the new year!

On February 6, with the help of CPP's Black Resource Center, Centerpointe celebrated Black History Month with A Taste of Black Diaspora luncheon. West African, Caribbean, and Southern dishes were served throughout the event, and attendees enjoyed their meals with a live musical performance from CPP's own jazz band.

Save money on Centerpointe admission, special events included, when you purchase a Commuter Meal Plan! Visit broncoonecard.com/commuter-meal-plans/ for more information on the ways you could save on campus dining today.
